

The Honorable John H. Chun

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

V.

DWIGHT CHRISTIANSON HENLINE,

Defendant.

NO. CR22-069 JHC

DISCOVERY PROTECTIVE ORDER

This matter, having come to the Court's attention on the Stipulated Motion for Entry of a Discovery Protective Order submitted by the United States of America and Defendant Dwight Christianson Henline, and the Court, having considered the motion, and being fully advised in this matter, hereby enters the following PROTECTIVE ORDER:

1. Protected Material

The following documents and materials are deemed Protected Material: a witness key identifying witnesses whose names have been redacted to initials in provided discovery, and other similar discovery that may from time to time be produced by the government. The United States will make available copies of the Protected Materials to defense counsel to comply with the government's discovery obligations. Possession of copies of the Protected Materials is limited to the attorneys of record, and investigators,

1 paralegals, law clerks, experts, and assistants for the attorneys of record (hereinafter
2 collectively referred to as members of the defense team). The defense team does not
3 include the defendant or any other witness. This category of Protected Materials will be
4 marked and labeled as “Protected Material.”

5       2.     Scope of Review of Protected Material

6       The defense team may not display, review, disseminate, or otherwise convey the 7 Protected Material to anyone outside the defense team except as provided herein. The 8 defense team may show, display, and review the Protected Material with the defendant;
9 however, the defense team may not provide a copy of the Protected Material to the 10 defendant or other persons to keep or maintain in his possession, or to copy for himself.
11 The defense team may also show the Protected Material to investigating case agents
12 identified by the government.

13       3.     Parties’ Reciprocal Discovery Obligations

14       Nothing in this order should be construed as imposing any discovery obligations
15 on the government or the defendant that are different from those imposed by case law, the 16 Jencks Act, Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and the Local Criminal 17 Rules.

18       4.     Filing of Protected Material

19       Any Protected Material that is filed with the Court in connection with pre-trial
20 motions, trial, sentencing, or other matter before this Court, shall be filed under seal and 21 shall remain sealed until otherwise ordered by this Court. This does not entitle either
22 party to seal their filings as a matter of course. The parties are required to comply in all 23 respects to the relevant local and federal rules of criminal procedure pertaining to the 24 sealing of court documents.

25       5.     Non-termination

26       The provisions of this Order shall not terminate at the conclusion of this 27 prosecution.

28       //

6. Violation of Protective Order

If the defendant violates any term or condition of this Order, the United States reserves its right to seek a sentencing enhancement for obstruction of justice, or to file any criminal charges relating to the defendant's violation.

DATED this 8th day of August, 2022.
